A Fight at St. Paul -Yesterday, while the Compromise Committee of the two days Conven tions were in ression at the Secretary's office, at the Capitol, a personal collision took place between Ex-Governor Gormon and Mr, Wilson, Republican of Winona. As near as we can ascertain the facts, they are as follows:

Mr. Wilson throughout the sessions of the Committee base calcibited the most ultra partisan spirit, and manifested a disposition, by the use of ungentlemanly language and ascribing motives to members of an almost criminal character, to provoke a personal collision. Upon an explanation being demanded, he withdrew the language so far as the Judge was con-cerned, but stated that it remained applicable to other Democratic members of the Joint Committee. Mr. Kinsley demanded the withdrawal of the language as applicable to him; the demand onceded; but upon Governor Gorman n k g it same request, Mr. Wilson replied that the objectionable epithets were intended to
